Supple, concentrated, plush. Expect chocolate, cherries, espresso, plums, baking spices and vanilla on the nose. The palate has a supple weight, smooth tannins and plush fruit layered with chocolate, vanilla and spice. A modern approachable style with appealing concentration of fruit nicely spiced."

This wine is a generous mouthful of vibrant flavours of black cherry, black currant and vanilla, with attractive red berry aromas. The long ripe tannins give the wine good weight and length.

"Winemaker Bradley Cooper has crafted a beauty here. Solid structure, firm tannins, bright red fruits, integrated spices and wonderful balance already."

"Wonderful rich dark plummy aromas. The palate is plush and smooth echoing the spice cake, chocolate and supple dark fruit of the nose. It's full but slightly hot in the mouth and the finish lingers nicely."

Best Merlot in Canada - James Suckling, former senior editor, Wine Spectator Magazine • Feb. 2011

"Full and very polished. Subtle and focused. Reminds me of a solid Tuscan Merlot. So good now but will keep going and going."
