"The wine, which has a pale salmon hue, has aromas of strawberries and cherries. The superb weight of this wine takes one by surprise. This is a dry rosé but the fruit flavours are full and intense. The finish is refreshing."

"This cheery pink winks with sweet fruity aromas of ripe strawberry and strawberry with crushed rose petal. Palate of Montmorency cherry and strawberry, followed by refreshing lemony acidity and a slight tug of tannin. Its finish offers a complex yet playful assortment of melon, apricot and tutti frutti."

"One of the stunning 2014's from BC to watch for... Delicate in colour, with an inviting aromatic nose, this is from new Township 7 winemaker Mary McDermott and she's off to a good start. Sweet red fruit scents on a bold nose with candied apple flavours and a finish that is ends tight and dry."

"Naramata-sourced Merlot is crafted into an amiable ode to cream soda and Turkish delight, yet a cautious walk of the tightrope keeps things from being too sweet. At once exotic and familiar, this is a cool wine to ponder, sip after pleasant sip."

"This rosé is a fantastic example of what can be produced in British Columbia..."
