"The wine begins with almost perfumed aromas of blackberry and black cherry. On the palate, there are flavours of spicy cherry with hints of cigar box on the finish. The tannins are firm. The wine needs to be decanted for immediate consumption but will develop spectacularly in bottle over the next 5 or 6 years."

"A generously long 2012 growing season in the south Okanagan Valley paid off marvelously for this rich cabernet franc. Full-bodied and polished, it's packed to the brim with layers of cherry jam, vanilla, dusty cocoa and new leather, joined by moist underbrush and a whiff reminiscent of a campfire in the distance. The tannins are gently chalky, yielding solid structure. Much riper and a lot less herbal than your typical Loire Valley cab franc. Great for roast pork."

"A robust, ripe Cabernet Franc. A thrilling nose of deep, rich blackberry, blueberry, roasted coffee bean, nutmeg, bramble and baking spices. It's thick and juicy on the palate with a combination of red and dark fruits, spice, vanilla and silky tannins though a smooth finish. Delicious wine."

"For those who love Cab Franc (myself included) this version delivers. Loaded with aromas of rich blackberry and woody notes. Good depth on the palate."
