

Accolades • Unoaked Chardonnay

2014 Vintage

91

Points

John Schreiner, renowned B.C. Wine Author • June 2015

"This wine begins with appealing aromas of apple and pineapple. These are echoed in the flavours. The palate is crisp, with flavours that have a laser beam focus and freshness. The finish is very long."

"Excellent", Eric Degerman, Great Northwest Wine Magazine • Dec. 2015

With her first vintage in the Okanagan Valley, Mary McDermott has established a reputation for a graceful white program. Fruit-forward aromas of Ambrosia Salad and honeysuckle hint at her use of clone 76, while the wealth of yellow grapefruit, lemon juice and citrus.

2011 Vintage

89

Points

John Schreiner, renowned B.C. Wine Author • Sept. 2012

"Crisp and fresh, with aromas and flavours of green apples. This is a tangy, refreshingly dry white that cries for pairing with seafood."

Jurgen Gothe, Georgia Straight • October 11, 2012

"Get it from either of the two T7 wineries (located in Langley and Naramata) or a good indie store. The aromas and palate jump with crisp apple and pear and citrus flavours. The taste of fresh-cut fruit is redolent; it's hearty and soft at the same time. Fish and chicken love it. Makes a nice benchmark for comparing other unoaked Chards."

2009 Vintage

Tim Pawsey, North Shore News • April 18, 2011

"More than a pleasant sipper, this enjoys a fresh, not overtly fruity style with melon and citrus aromas, apple and background mineral notes on the palate. A great match for seafood."

Wine Press Northwest Magazine • July 2011

"Few spots in Northwest wine country lend themselves to al fresco dining as well as the Naramata Bench, and here's a great sipper to enjoy with afternoon fare on a summer day. It's filled with apple, pear, jasmine, lavender and citrusy tones."

2007 Vintage

Judges Choice, International Value Wine Awards, 2009

